Description

Sintra boasts one of the most important symbols of the Romantic period in Portugal, the famous and colourful Pena Palace. The delightful town and its medieval streets have been classified a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, where you'll find typical regional products. Neighbouring Cascais, with its fishing harbour, is a must-see tourist hub teeming with life, and Estoril is home to a Casino surrounded by beautiful gardens overlooking the sea. And that's just the tip of the iceberg.
